

“Advances in Telemedicine: Lessons to be Learned Going Forward
Into an e-Enabled Healthcare Environment”

(In Collaboration with the American Telemedicine Association)

Wednesday, April 22nd, 12:00 – 1:45 pm

Senate Visitors Center (SVC) 200/201

East Capitol and First Streets, N.E.

- Neal Neuberger, Executive Director, Institute for e-Health Policy (Moderator) – bio
- Jonathan Linkous, CEO, American Telemedicine Association – bio
- Jay H. Sanders, M.D., President and CEO, The Global Telemedicine Group – bio
- Stuart Ferguson, Ph.D., Director of Telehealth, Alaska Native Tribal Health Consortium, and John Kokesh, M.D., Chairman, Department of Otolaryngology, Alaska Native Medical Center, Anchorage, AK
- Walt Grant, Director of Government Affairs and IT Integration, INRange Systems, Inc.

Special thanks to NextGenWeb and Internet2 for recording and archiving webcasts of today’s program on their sites.

NextGenWeb.org

INTERNET²